

Yakubovskii Aleksandr

From the Yakubovskij family (with 9 children) in the village of Vyshenky, Boryspil region:

Peace to you! With sincere heart, we want to thank you for the help we received from you. For our family, it was a very great support and answer to our prayers. May the Lord abundantly bless you and give you a hundredfold for your care. May God's peace be with you and your families. Peaceful sky to all of you!

The Vereshagin Family

I, Tetyana Vereshchagina, and my family lived happily in our house until February 24. The war started and my husband went to the front. The Russians reached our village. And from March 6, heavy shelling began. My family and I sat in the cellar all the time. It was very scary. The guys, the Ukrainian military, who repelled the attacks near my house, told us to run away. We left on the morning of March 6, and by evening my house had already been destroyed and my family was left without a home. I'm ashamed now that I don't even remember the faces of those guys who said run. They are my guardian angels.

The Yudin Family

We are a family of Yudins from the city of Chuguiv, in the Kharkiv region.

I will never forget the morning of February 24, I remember it minute by minute. I, like millions of Ukrainians, woke up at 5 in the morning to the sound of an explosion. My husband was at work on the night shift, and I was alone with my 4-year-old daughter. I did not understand what I should do. We stayed in our city for almost a month, and the rest of us couldn't bear to live in constant fear and under shelling, decided to leave for a safer place. Unfortunately, we cannot return to our home yet, it is very painful to see familiar and familiar places in the news that are now destroyed.

Yurchenko Anna

Hello! I am Anna Yurchenko!

I am 39 years old. I was born, lived and worked in the city of Kherson. I am an accountant by profession and most of the time she worked in the service sector - a manager in banks. Six months before the start of the war in Ukraine, I was being treated at the Kherson oncology clinic. With the beginning of hostilities in April 2022, I left my hometown for Ivano-Frankivsk to sister for a few months.

On May 22, I moved to the city of Odesa to continue treatment. From May 22 to today, I underwent three more operations (the last one took place in Kyiv on May 24 of this year). I am infinitely grateful to everyone involved in this help, because thanks to it I was able to do the last two operations. THANK YOU VERY MUCH! LOW BOW!!!!

The Dodon Family

We would like to thank for your assistance to our family. These funds are a significant contribution. It's solid ground beneath our feet. In such a difficult period for our family, like official homeless people, as we have nowhere to return even when the city is saved from Russian military, this financial opportunity allows us to buy medicine for our children. The illness season has started, and everything has become much more expensive in Ukraine.

It gives us the chance to purchase baby nutrition for our infant, unfortunately, humanitarian aid is not provided in our village, so we have been buying nutrition for our baby throughout the war. We can simply go to the store and buy groceries. Peace to your home, and thank you for your kind heart.

Zgurska Karina

Thank you for the huge help, this help is very appropriate, my husband is a military man and with this help I bought him food and hygiene on the front lines many times. This help helps a lot with the fact that there is a lack of funds, my husband needs a lot money for equipment, etc.

but the war showed that there are those people who are ready to help in difficult times. we were sheltered in Chernivtsi by very kind people, the family of Mykola Luchak. Thanks to Mykola, my daughter and I got into the program of assistance to Ukrainian refugees. This is such a scary word, refugee.

Alina Ishenko

From Lugansk region, 19 years old, both of her parents are on service in Ukrainian Army. She is a student now in Military University.

More 486 days of heroic resistance of the Ukrainian people to the Russian army.

This war brings grief, tears, hundreds of destroyed cities, hundreds of thousands of destroyed lives, tens of thousands of deaths...Every day, Russia inflicts devastating blows on many cities, it kills, worries every day, frightened children. But morning always comes after night. Psychologists, volunteers, caring people motivate us, give us hope for the best, and help us. And in Kolomyia, American friends came to visit us, it was in May 2022.

Degtyar Zoya, Selinov Sergiy

We are the family from Kramatorsk. We met you in Kosiv in Karpathians, where we were moved from our native city because of the war. Budai Anna

Hello, my name is Anna. And I'm from Irpin. I met the founders in the city of Kosiv, Ivano-Frankivsk region at the end of May 22, when they came to Ukraine. I painted a picture of Venice, which I gave them. Because they still had to go to Irpin. This year seemed very difficult. There was a lot of good and bad. The eldest daughter prepares handmade soap, which she made from a pure heart and gave as a keepsake for you. I've finished eyelash courses and I work at home. I thank them very much for such an opportunity and the realization of such small dreams. There were also failures, and the youngest daughter wanted to make candles, but she was a little unsuccessful.

Dima Georgiy

We were living in Mykolaiv region.

It was almost morning when the wife heard the explosions. I went out and looked from the mountain, Mykolaiv was shining. Everything was in fire in war.

Relatives, loved ones, friends left, but we remained without the opportunity to leave because enemies pushed us from all sides. In basement and staying under the river, in shelters, the children became ill.

There was nothing to feed them until volunteers appeared they started providing help. House near the road. They saw the fighting, how the Russian army passed through the 'meat grinder' and burned together with the equipment.

Duhno Viktoriya

We are family from Chernigov.

We have met you in Kosiv in school, where we were gathered as displaced persons. You listened to our stories, you express sympathy and we shared our feeling with you. Then you switched a song that was especially written for Ukrainians and all the world cried. Originally I am from Chernigov region. It is near the border with Russia. In June we returned home, but we can't recognize our home, our city and our house. Some of our neighbors were killed. Someone disappeared. Our house was destroyed without windows and robbed. Thanks to your help we made some renovations and buy new things.

The Dyadenko Family

Peace to all... I, Dyadenko Olga Petrivna, a Ukrainian, lived with my family in the village of Pervomaiske, Mykolaiv district, Mykolaiv region, before the war. The Red Cross organization took my family away to Mykolaiv, and a month later volunteers took us to the village of Yavoriv, Kosiv district, Ivano-Frankivsk region, where we lived with other migrants in the local lyceum for 4 months.

From here, my son was taken to the war. He died on July 2, 2022, in the village of Dolyna Slovyansk district of the Donetsk region. He was buried in the village of Yavoriv, as there were military operations there. Local authorities, residents, and employees of the lyceum helped us a lot.

I knew Yaroslava Podunay a little because she is from Makiyivka too.

Thanks to your help we survived in this most difficult time. My husband did not have a permanent income for half a year, and the house had to be rented. Thanks to this program, we were able to pay for the rent, buy everything for our daughter to go to school, bought a retainer for our daughter.

Zaporozhye very quickly became a front-line city, where constant shelling destroyed houses to their foundations. My son was very afraid of the loud sounds of shelling, we constantly went down to the basement to feel safe. . Our city was the reception center for refugees from Mariupol and other southern cities of Ukraine, and in the first weeks I myself helped people leave, was a volunteer at the refugee center.

Kolomyya four shelters

3 cards were given to Kolomyya four shelters.

At the beginning there were three shelters, the fourth one was opened in February 2023.

The many was spent on restoration works, basement works, purchase of necessary equipment for kitchen and for sanitary rooms. The heating system was installed, we have bought two generators and we also bought several times petrol for them. Also we have bought all necessary instruments for outdoor works. We established a children room with all necessary facilities, a social worker and a teacher is working there and mothers can work part time.

I have already written several times that of the lost material things, I regret the photos the

The war found me at home, in a relatively safe corner of Ukraine. Although only 70km. from my house in the morning of February 24 also sounded bombs exploded.

In a few days, people began to appear in our city who fled the war, mainly women with children.

So I also offered shelter in my house. The families that stayed with me lived for several weeks or months, and then went to seek refuge abroad.

At first, the shelling was cruise missiles and bombing from airplanes because a military unit was located near our house. Which was completely bombed. Our house was also damaged. After the first shelling, we hid in the basement of our high-rise building.

A few hours later, from the side of the city of Belgorod, the Russian Federation, having violated the state border, the regular armed forces of the Russian Federation approached the shelter in the city of Kharkiv, which began to fire very heavily at the shelter with various types of weapons, our neighborhood - Northern Saltivka...

The Sobol Family

Dear friends! First of all, we thank you for your help and your big hearts. For the fact that you do not leave our compatriots, Ukrainians, in our great and terrible trouble, which came to our country last year and still does not leave us. We lived in Donbas, in the flourishing city of Sloviansk, but the war forced us to leave our homes, so we ended up in Ivano-Frankivsk regio. Thanks to our volunteers, we found shelter in a shelter in Lysets Medical Center and lived with my little granddaughter Marichka in the same room as refugees from Brovary, and then with women from Kharkiv. Now we have moved again to our shelter in Lysets, we have to pay for our accommodation, and if it wasn't for your kind help, we wouldn't know where to go and where to live.

The Sokolovy Family

Hello! We are from Irpin. Our house was fully destroyed due to war. We have met you in Kosiv in school we are we lived as displaced persons. We have a family: 3 children and two parents.

The money that came in was very useful to us - we were able to buy my son a laptop and a refrigerator, and then even a tool for my husband, because it burned down along with the house, as well as dishes and basic necessities.

A lot has happened this year. We understood (on our own skin that the main thing is life and it should be valued) and in no case should we give up. It was difficult - when we arrived last spring - there were remnants of the house all over the garden and even on the neighboring plots, and some of the bushes died because no one watered them.

The Stenyuk Family

We are two sister Stenyuk Tetyana and Yurchuk Kateryna. We are living now in Kosiv, we were evacuated from Zhytomyr Region, Makarivskiy district. Our house was destroyed, so we live in shelter school. We are retired, but you know, the amount of payment when you are retired is not high.

So thank you for your help. We bought some furniture, laptop, medicines, slow cooker and other helpful things, power chargers etc.

We are waiting to return to our city, be able to restore our house and meet our family. Low bow to you all you children and parents to all your family.

The work is almost lost. Hope it all ends through melted in a month or two.

My age is pensionable. I appreciate every year, so I want for life to be interesting, filled with new impressions, travels. I had many plans for 2022. But all this remained in the time "before the war". The mood is depressed. Someone may say "not in time, not for travel." First of all, our victory. Yes of course. I begged God to help Ukraine.

Tatyana Nechai

Good day! My name is Tatyana, I was born and all my life lived in a village near the city of Melitopol, Zaporizhzhia region. I'm there got married, gave birth to three children and lived her normal life. But on February 24, the war began and it changed our lives forever.

My native village was occupied by Russian invaders. Me and mine children left for Lviv, and the husband went to defend our native land.

Thank God that we had the opportunity to go to a safe place. Then we went to Poland, to the city of Opole. In Lviv volunteers told me about your program. I was lucky enough to be included in it.

across half the country, we setteled in Kolomyya, where there is silence and peace. We were very well received , they gave us a room, we are helped with food and clothes by caring and friendly people, volunteers from all over the world.

Iryna Verik

Good afternoon, I'm Iryna, Verik and your support program helped me and my girls a lot! You are doing an extraordinary thing! You provide such necessary help when it is absolutely needed, because it is very scary to be left without a husband, without a home, without your life with a backpack on your shoulders, and to find the strength to believe and give hope to two pairs of the closest eyes, who are even more afraid...

And you gave these strength with your support, and not only money is important, but the understanding that there are caring people in the world who really help!

Yulia Rostovska

I come from the village of Kysylivka, Snygurivka district, Mykolaiv region, our village was occupied by the Orks at the end of March, we were under occupation for a month, when they started shooting, we had to leave the village to the city of Mykolaiv, volunteers arranged for us in a kindergarten where we lived for two months later, the Volunteers offered us to go to the village of Yavoriv Ivano, Frankivska region.

Well, due to the circumstances, I needed to leave because my mother fell ill, I am now in the city of Mykolaiv, taking care of my mother, my village is still under occupation, my house was bombed, this is the story.

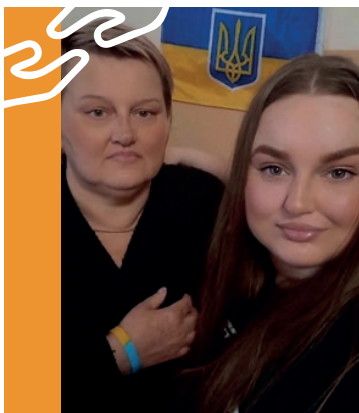

Zalogina Lyudmila

I am Zalogina Lyudmila. From Odessa. Since the beginning of the war, I and my daughter, who is suffering from oncology, were bombed near the sea, it was very scary! After that, we went to Kolomyia, where all the kind people helped us a lot with housing, food, and all other things. When I noticed that my daughter was getting worse, we immediately went to the hospital to see an oncologist and we had to quickly do an examination and be treated, which unfortunately is very expensive, thanks to your program up to this day helps me a lot to treat the child and also and to treat myself, since half a year later I found out that I myself got oncology.

Katyryna Zayets

Good evening!!! We are from Ukraine!!!. Hello to all American people! Sometimes a miracle happens—it's just really good people with a good heart that God sends into our lives. Yes, that's you: Dell Loy Hansen, David and Chelom Leavitt. It was you who lent a helping hand and came, despite the fact that we are at war, it was you who came to Kolomyia, it was you that I met personally in the shelter, on the street. Hetmanska, 5.

It was you who couldn't find words for us, it was you who had a lump in our throat, it was your faces that showed compassion and concern, and your eyes were just human tears. Yes, I cried too, sobbed and told about the horrors that we experienced with my daughter.

The Makarenko Family

Hello, I'm Karina. I have three wonderful children whom I raise on my own. When the full-scale invasion of our country began and rockets started flying, we were in Lysychansk staying with relatives. But I became afraid for our lives, especially for the lives of my children. So we went to Troitske, where I have a small house that is a bit further away from the front line. It's challenging to cope with and provide for little children during these difficult times.

I am currently on maternity leave, so money is tight. The benefits I receive for the children are spent on essential needs in the first few days. When the war started, it became much harder to live because we had to leave our established place of residence and the support of nearby relatives

The Lebid Family

My name is Tanya, and I am from the city of Bahmut. I am a mother of two girls and after my divorce, I was left without housing and had to rent an apartment. When the war started, life became much harder for us. We faced difficulties with finances, housing, and constant shelling. It's very challenging to raise children on my own during these times without any support, and I struggle to make ends meet. Due to the situation in the country, prices in stores are increasing by the minute. After being evacuated from the city, acquaintances took us in Pershotravensk. I work as a gas station operator, but my salary is low, and there are constant delays. I cannot change jobs at the moment because my child is in the second grade and requires more attention and assistance with learning through online education.

The Ponomarov Family

My name is Katerina. I am a mother of three children. I live with my elderly mother and the kids. My mother receives a minimum pension. I am a single mother to the two older children (I don't receive any support payments), and I haven't received child support for the youngest for three years.

When the war started, life became very difficult. We faced financial difficulties. It's extremely challenging to raise children nowadays without any support. Whatever I manage to earn is not enough for anything. There are no good job opportunities in the village, and I can't afford to travel to the city. Additionally, my children are attending online classes, which require assistance and attention.

The Lyulka Family

Hello

I am Oleksander Lyulka. I am from Kosiv.

I am responsible in City administration for community maintenance. But in war time I am also as many of my us a volunteer.

I have big family, now my son is on war. Before the war started I had a side business so called “ green tourism”. In my small hotel guest came from all parts of Ukraine.

It hard for us but all together we will manage. Thank to your help we managed to survive a winter and hope we will do the rest. Thank you from all the families that lived with us all these time. (There are 6 of them) and my family also.

The Lisovets Family

My name is Nastya. I am a mother of three girls. We used to live together in a small urban-type settlement not far from where the military actions are taking place. Sometimes rockets would hit our area. When the war started, life became very scary and difficult. Prices in the stores skyrocketed. My husband's salary was cut by 30%. We decided to leave for Western Ukraine. We encountered financial difficulties. My husband wanted to join the Armed Forces of Ukraine to provide for us and defend our land, but he was denied because he lacks military training. I am currently unable to work because the settlement is small and there is a lack of job opportunities.

Kondratenko Julie

I am Kondratenko Julie. I and my mother were displaced persons from Irpin in February 2022. We were moved to Kosiv. There in Kosiv we met you, when we were living in a school. You have us to listen to a song, that was written for us and we were all crying while listening to it. Then we told our open stories of war survivors and you listen to everyone very attentively. Then you gave us help.

My mother is very old, she is almost 96 years old.

But she is still ok. For her it was a great shock, to survive this all, tacking into account that has already survived one war, the Second World War. And it is awful that we in 21 century need to hide from bombs and air shelling.

The Kraynyuk Family

One day before the war (23.02)

My day was no different from other days, this day only my friends and I met for a walk, what topic did we talk with them? Of course, on the topic of "Will there be a war?", we didn't believe it at all (and I still can't believe it), but the answer to this question was already given the next day.

The beginning of the war, the first day, 24.02

My morning did not start normally, but with panic from the fact that some explosions were already heard, and all the news reports said that the war had begun.

The Polikarpov family

We are a family of refugees from the Kyiv region. Our family consists of 5 people: three children, my husband, and me. At the beginning of the war, due to the shelling, we were forced to leave our home in the Kyiv region and move to Vynnyky, Lviv region. We are a large family, taking care of three minors aged 15, 10, and 5. My husband has a disability (Group 3), and I take care of our youngest son who has asthma and requires constant medical attention.

After the forced relocation, we have to rent housing since we cannot afford to return home as it is periodically shelled. We struggle to make ends meet and barely have enough for food and rent. We sincerely thank you for the assistance provided to us.

Rostyslav Martyniuk

My name is Rostyslav Martyniuk, my wife is Halyna. Together we have two minor daughters, Anastasia and Olga. In addition, we have two older daughters who are married and live separately. We have three grandchildren. Before the war, my wife and I worked in the tourism industry. I was the manager of the Oselya Hotel on Dragobrat (a ski resort), and my wife took care of our estate, where we hosted people for family vacations. We built the estate together with my wife. Since the beginning of the war, we lost our income in the family business and I lost my job as a hired worker. For four months, we hosted refugees from Kharkiv, Kyiv, Odesa, and Zaporizhzhia at the hotel on Dragobrat.

The Kryvych Family

We are the Kryvych family, who left our home and moved to another city. We left our home in Dnipropetrovsk region and relocated to Lviv. My husband is a military serviceman who is currently stationed in the east, defending our peace. We find ourselves in a foreign city, without jobs, without our own home, and without means of sustenance. We are extremely grateful for the assistance during this challenging time for us.

Thanks to your help, we were able to purchase essential items as we had left with nothing, and every month we buy groceries. We are very grateful to you, and may God bless and protect you!

The Nozdrachov Family

Hello! We are the Nozdrachov family, a large family with many children! Since 2012, we have been living in Mariupol. When the war started, my husband voluntarily joined the Armed Forces of Ukraine. As the front line approached and rockets landed near our house, we had to move to western Ukraine with our children. For a while, we stayed in one of the educational institutions, but we were eventually evicted when the new school year began. . We found temporary shelter with some people, but they are pressuring us to leave. I take up any odd jobs I can find, but with five children, it's challenging. We don't have enough child benefits. We are grateful that the Lord has sent us this assistance.

The Bogachevsky Family

The Bogachevsky family thank you for your help in this difficult time. We received the cards and are immensely grateful to everyone involved and the sponsors. This is a great assistance for us during these challenging times. As we have mentioned before, we were forced to leave our home and move to Lviv. The children attend school, but when the air alarm sounds, they descend to the bomb shelter with backpacks containing essential items: water, food, warm clothing, medication, and a card with the child's personal information and blood type. Additionally, my middle daughter joined a ballet school in Lviv, and all her training gear remained in our hometown. With this assistance, we purchased everything necessary for her ballet training, including pointe shoes and more.

The Fedoryshyn Family

I am a mother of many children, I have 10 children. I gave birth to my 10th child during the war. Due to the war and my husband's illness, we have faced difficulties with employment. It is extremely hard to survive with children during wartime, as prices unrealistically rise and children need to be fed every day. Thanks to your help, we have received real financial support. We sincerely thank you for your invaluable assistance.

We are a very large family, with 10 children. We are deeply grateful to you for your compassion towards us and other families to whom you provide this help. Thanks to you, we were able to send our children to school, make it through the winter, purchase firewood and winter clothing, and buy food and medicine every day. May God bless and protect

The Zhytaryuk Family

We are a young family with two minor children, and we are expecting our third child. My husband volunteered for the Armed Forces, leaving me alone with the children. During the war, I lost my job, and my husband's salary was reduced. Currently, we are residing in Lviv city in a rented apartment. I am currently pregnant and undergoing numerous medical tests in preparation for the arrival of our baby. We sincerely appreciate your assistance and keep you in our prayers.

The Prokopenko Family

We are the Prokopenko family. We have three children and we came to Lviv from the border area with Donetsk region, from Pershotravensk. In Lviv, we live in a rented apartment, and the rent with utilities during the winter period is almost 15,000 UAH. It's very challenging. I stay at home with the children while my husband does odd jobs, but our income is not enough to cover our needs. Our little children often get sick.

We are very grateful to you for the help. With this money, we can buy necessary food and items for the children. We pray for you and thank you every day.

The Shapovalov Family

Good day! The Shapovalov family sincerely thanks you for your help and support over the past few months! This assistance has been vital for us, as it has allowed us to overcome many limitations. Thanks to this project, we were able to purchase warm clothes and winter footwear, kitchenware, and essential household items. Since our city, Nova Kakhovka, is still occupied, we are unable to return to our home and continue to rent accommodation in the Lviv region. We kindly request that you continue this project, as without this assistance, it would be extremely difficult for us. Thank you very much! May you be blessed with God's blessings and peace!

The Kuzmenko Family

Our Kuzmenko family sincerely wants to thank you for your help. You have truly been a lifeline during these difficult times for us. The situation in our country remains unchanged, prices are rising, and military personnel have had their salaries reduced. My husband is still serving in the Armed Forces, and we have had a new addition to our family - a long-awaited baby boy (our fourth child), which has doubled our expenses. row. Thank you!

We thank God for you and remember you in our prayers because what you do is deserving of respect. Only people with big and kind hearts are capable of such acts. Thank you for your open heart! You give us confidence in tomorrow. Thank you!

The Syrovatskyi Family

Tatiana Syrovatska from Bahmut. A single mother of two children. The elder is 8 years old, and the younger is 1 year old. For six months, we lived under shelling, experiencing fear, tears, explosions, sirens, and hiding in the basement. When I started teaching my 7-year-old daughter that if something happens to me, she should save her 8-month-old brother and go to people for help, I realized we needed to leave. We came to Lviv.

Nowhere to go. No acquaintances or relatives. We were accommodated in a small room in a dormitory. We have nothing. No basic familiar things (spoons, cups, bedding, towels, kettle, pots, cabinets, washing machine). Everything was left at home. I simply left my beloved apartment forever.

The Prokopyshyn Family

Hello and may God bless you! My name is Maria, and I am a mother of three girls and the wife of a military serviceman who was discharged without proper documents, suffering from post-traumatic and psychological distress. My husband is currently undergoing treatment as he cannot yet be among people. The state does not cover his treatment expenses due to the lack of documents, and they are not in a hurry to provide them.

However, thank God, my husband is alive and well! I gave birth to our third child during the war, and assistance for low-income families is very limited. I can only afford to pay for utilities in our village. We live, eat, and receive medical care solely because of your help! My whole family is immensely grateful to you.

The Homenko Family

Hello dear ones! The Homenko family is writing to you. In this photo, we were still caught between heaven and earth, having just escaped from the enemy attacks in the town of Henichesk. A month later, we arrived in Dnipro and started receiving your assistance. We repaired our home, purchased appliances, and enrolled our children in school. A measured life began, despite being under shelling. We are immensely grateful to you for your your timely help. It was crucial during such difficult times, as the war is not yet over, and every day brings worries and shelling. You have greatly aided us in settling and developing in the city of Dnipro. We are infinitely thankful to you!

The Batig Family

Hello, my name is Anna. I am the mother of three sons: Volodymyr, Dmytro, and Ivan. We are from Pokrov (Ordzhonikidze), Dnipropetrovsk Oblast. Before the war, my eldest son Volodymyr (who was 17 at the time) was already studying at the Kharkiv Aerospace University (KhAI) in his first year, while the younger ones were in the 4th and 6th grades.

The first trouble began in Kharkiv because my son was studying and living there on his own. At five in the morning, a phone call: "They're bombing us, Mom!" Shock! What should I do? How? Where? I tried to leave for two weeks (there were unsuccessful attempts to book a car, buses), but everything was canceled at the last minute...

The Ankerstein Family

Hello, I'm Olga. We used to live in Izium city. After the Russian invaders arrived, our lives turned into hell. My husband was killed in the early days, and I was left alone with the children. After the departure of those Russian monsters, volunteers evacuated us to Kharkiv, and from there we moved to Dnipro. We were taken in by a family, where a girl suggested reaching out to you. Our home is destroyed, and all our belongings are left there.

We thank you for your help during this difficult time. Food, clothing—even these seemingly small things became unbearable for our family, but your financial support made it a reality. There are no words to express our gratitude. Thank you.

The Fomenko Family

Dear Dale Loyle and team,
Greetings to you, our dear angels. This is a letter from the Fomenko family, a large family with many children. We have been receiving assistance from you for over a year, and our family is infinitely grateful to you. When we first met, it was in the village of Bedevlia. You appeared in our lives like angels, bringing hope and faith in the future. Your financial support has been the foundation of security for our family to this day. We have now returned to our region and are living in the city of Synelnykove. We are renting a home and serving in the church.

The Glyniani Family

From the first days of the war, my husband went to defend our country, and we were left without means of livelihood as he was the sole breadwinner. We are displaced persons from the Dnipropetrovsk region, and now I am living in the Lviv region with four children. Kind-hearted people, who learned about our situation, helped us with accommodation. Your assistance is extremely significant for us. With this aid, we primarily purchase food, clothing clothing for the children, and medicine. We are immensely grateful to have people who are not indifferent to the problems of others. Thank you very much. We pray for you and express our gratitude every day for your open hearts.

The Gorbenko Family

Dear Dell & Julia Loy and David Leavitt, let me express our sincere gratitude for your recent financial contribution to support us in our attempts to survive the hardships caused by the war in Ukraine - thanks to you it became possible! We already lost our houses 8 years ago due to civil unrest in the eastern part of Ukraine. My parents, my kids and I had to move to a safer part of the country, namely to the Kyiv region. We were leaving our homes while rockets were shooting from our building...

At that time, my little son was only 3 months old, he was born in March 2014, and in July we had to flee from our home town.

The Chypak Family

My name is Oksana Chypak. When rockets started flying into my city, my children and I had to leave. We traveled and eventually returned home to Donetsk Oblast. There was a great threat of occupation in our region. Thankfully, it did not happen. Lately, it has become somewhat calmer. We live 34 km away from the front line. I thank my American friends, organizers, helpers, and everyone who is providing assistance.

My children and I lack nothing. Thank you for giving us the opportunity to buy food and clothing during such a difficult time. We are not hungry. Thank you!

The Fatula Family

Our Fatula family is grateful to you for your assistance during this very difficult time for our country. February 24, 2022. It was the scariest day of our lives. I couldn't believe that the war had started. I was home alone with a child, and my husband was at work (he is a miner). I panicked about what to do, how to handle the situation. I prayed to God that no rockets would hit the mine. If that had happened, thousands of wives and children would have been left without fathers. Thank God everything turned out fine, and our dad returned from work.

The Guriev Family

Good evening. I'm writing to you to continue our story and share how we are trying to move forward. This is my second message. We are currently in Zakarpattia, and many people might ask, "What is wrong with you? What could possibly be bothering you?" It seems quiet here, we have accommodation, and we were given these cards... .. But the reality is not as good and simple as it may appear to many outsiders.

It seems like everyone has forgotten about the emotional state of a person, which is felt by both children and adults. We arrived here in March, and we are still here... Now I want to share a moment from our life... No one will believe it when I tell them.

The 'Strong Woman' Project (2 cards)

The "Strong Women" Project, which has been operating with your help since September 2022, has provided psychological and legal assistance to over 200 women with children. Additionally, each of them has received training in the beauty industry, acquiring new professional skills. All the women are internally displaced persons, and most of them no longer have their own homes, having to rebuild their lives in a new city. We assist them in resolving legal issues, professional psychologists provide consultations, and we also provide food assistance. The Strong Women club is attended by 35 women and 20 children on a weekly basis.

The Stolba Family

I would like to thank all the employees of the foundation and personally Dale Lowe for the support during this difficult time for our family. Thanks to your assistance, we were able to rent accommodation in the city of Tyachiv. With your help, we had everything necessary for life. We are very grateful for your caring and sensitive hearts. It is so precious to feel that you are not alone. With respect, the Stolba family.

Hello! I recently had the opportunity to visit home. I hadn't been there since the beginning of the war. The day before my arrival, my hometown Izium was shelled again. They targeted the school where I studied and more.

The Fomenko Family

From the bottom of our hearts, our Ukrainian large Fomenko family expresses gratitude to Dale Low and the entire team for the assistance. Your support helps us to live each day and have the necessary provisions. Thank you very much for opening your hearts to Ukraine. This year, we had the opportunity to pay rent for our apartment and purchase essential items.

May the Lord bless you. We have experienced a lot of sorrow, but we believe in victory.

The Grynevych Family

Hello, my name is Lena. We were evacuated from Bachmut due to the war and shelling. I am a single mother raising two children, and currently, we live in the city of Dnipro. Even before the war, we were not living well, but when the war started, I lost my job, making it even harder to live. We are living in a rented apartment with my elderly pensioner parents and my 82-year-old grandmother who requires care and medication. We don't have enough money for

for all of us, and it's difficult to find work nowadays. I do temporary jobs to make ends meet. The war has brought its challenges. Recently, two rockets exploded near our house. It's a major source of stress for our parents, especially for the children who are afraid to go outside.

The Androsov Family

Hello! We are from the country where the war is taking place. Our children, friends, and relatives won't be able to meet anytime soon. Because we are at war!!! It saddens me and my children. Their childhood and dreams have been stolen from them. If we talk about my eldest daughter's dreams, she dreams of having the best family, peace, and a successful career.

The middle one dreams of the war ending and sleeping peacefully like before February 24. And the youngest, who is only 4 years old, is a smart girl, and the love for our country is deeply ingrained in her. She is a little drop of every Ukrainian's blood!

It wasn't scary... It was a strange feeling... I felt it for the first time at the rally on March 5th. When so many people came out and there was an understanding that the city is truly Ukrainian! Truly! No one wants Russia here! There was a feeling that even unarmed, with our position, we can scare them and prove that they are unnecessary, foreigners... They are not expected here, not welcomed...

They march towards armored vehicles with bare hands... It was amazing! There was a belief that Victory would be here! Now! In Kherson! I started live streaming every day because I felt it was necessary for them!

Since February 24, after evacuating my family and loved ones from the Brovary district, I started helping people in any way I could: transporting people, delivering food, providing clothing, medicine, and shelter for those in more volatile areas. Now it's called volunteering. I don't have a job because there are hardly any opportunities, and your help allows me to live a decent l ife and buy everything necessary for my family, who are also unemployed. Thank you, may God bless you!

Good day. My name is Kateryna Varchenko. Due to the war, I had to leave the country with my 2 children. I am the mother of 2 beautiful sons. currently i'm Spain. My husband remained in Ukraine, serving in the National Guard of Ukraine. Unfortunately, I do not have the opportunity to work now, so I am infinitely grateful to you for the financial assistance. Thanks to this money, my children have the opportunity to have a normal childhood. Thank you.

The Zhuravsky Family

A family of internally displaced persons from Toretsk, Donetsk region, found shelter in the same building on Naberezhnaya Peremogy, 118 in Dnipro. On January 14, 2023, a rocket attack was carried out on a residential building in Dnipro. As of January 17, there are 45 dead, including three children, and 75 wounded. Oleg Kodatskyi

Our family left Mariupol in March of last year, and for the second year now, we have been renting an apartment in Lviv. We have two foster children, but this year we had to remove the older one, who is already 19 years old, from our family, and he is trying to live independently. He rents a room but still needs assistance. Our foster daughter, who is 14 years old, lives with us. We also live with my wife's disabled mother, who requires care.

Our biological children are adults now, with our daughter already married and our son serving in the Armed Forces. He is currently in the hospital due to a deterioration in his health resulting from the conditions of his service and requires further medical examination.

The Horban Family

Our family, Igor Gorban, 58 years old, Svitlana, 54 years old, and our mother, 72 years old, have two married children and seven grandchildren (in Kyiv). The war did not spare our family since 2014 when the Russian aggressor crossed the borders of Ukraine. It was already clear then that Russia's further actions meant war (unfortunately). Since that year, my wife and I started actively assisting the affected people.

However, fate led me (as the husband) to make a decision to defend Ukraine, to go to the frontlines and protect our land, and to safeguard the people in Eastern Ukraine. From spring 2014, I served in the Aidar Volunteer Battalion.

The Korbul Family

On February 24th, it felt like a nightmare, a terrifying dream. I woke up at 5 in the morning to strange sounds and started walking around the apartment. Everyone else was already awake. And then it felt like hell. My husband said it had begun... and he had to leave immediately. Tears flowed like water from a faucet. By 6:30 in the morning, my husband kissed me and the children, took his helmet, bulletproof vest, weapon, and set off to join his comrades.

For him, it was a familiar situation, as he had been fighting since 2015, defending our independent Ukraine. He knew how to conduct himself and what to do. He passed this experience on to us. So we quickly gathered our documents and left our home. In that moment, my heart shattered in half.

The Poddubny Family

I want to thank you from the depths of my heart for supporting volunteers here in Ukraine. It's incredible what we were able to do with your help. When the war started we couldn't work or study. But we couldn't do nothing either. It seemed that we owe to do something to help our citizens, our soldiers and country overall. That started our journey of buying groceries and cooking meals for refugees, sending humanitarian aid for people on the East, providing orphanages that had to move from hot spots with needed things. Our typical day starts with planning, then packing, driving, sending. Your donations reached hundreds of victims of the war. And we can't say thank you enough for that. God bless you all.

Vyacheslav Smyslov

Vyacheslav Smyslov is a serviceman of the Armed Forces of Ukraine who sustained severe multiple injuries near Bahmut while shielding his commander, saving his life. In 2014, his family relocated to Mariupol during the occupation of Donetsk. From Mariupol, Vyacheslav was deployed to the front lines, participating in the liberation of Kherson. Immediately after the liberation of Kherson, their brigade was transferred to Bahmut, where he

he took part in the defense of Bahmut until he was injured in February 2023. Their family home in Mariupol was destroyed, and the Smyslov family, including Vyacheslav's three young children, disabled mother, had to move to Lviv for his treatment. Later, the family relocated to Uman.

The Stepanov Family

My name is Svetlana and I am a mother of two children. Before the war, we lived in the city of Izium. The children are Stepanov Mykyta Vitaliiovych, born in 2006, and Stepanov Bohdan Vitaliiovych, born in 2007. My husband is Vitalii Anatoliiovych Stepanov, born in 1982. My mother is Olha Oleksandrivna Blokhivets, born in 1954, and she is disabled, requiring constant medication. Currently, we are in Zakarpattia, in the city of Tiachiv, because we have nowhere to return to in Izium. Our home has been damaged and is uninhabitable. We are in need of assistance as we have to pay for accommodation during winter, and it is extremely difficult to access humanitarian aid. Finding work is also challenging.

Tetyana Zemlyak Family

Our family resides in the village of Bohdanivka in the Brovary district. Our village was occupied by the invaders. We didn't have a chance to leave. We went through all the horrors of war. When the shooting started, our family hid in the cellar. My husband, our three children, and my elderly mother were with me. We spent several days in the cellar. When everything quieted down and we came out of the cellar, we saw our house, barn, and car burning burning down. We were left with nothing. Our kind neighbors took in our large family. Your assistance gave us the strength to endure and not lose our sanity. Your support was a miracle during this terrible time. We are incredibly grateful to you for this sacrifice for the sake of unknown people.

The Kashchuk Family

Our family lives in the village of Bohdanivka, Brovary district. Russian forces have occupied our village. Tanks were driving through the streets. We counted 20 tanks on our street. We started gathering our belongings. A neighbor called us to run and hide in the cellar. Our family took shelter in the neighbor's cellar. . It was small, and there were 8 of us. The explosions were terrifying. The cellar was shaking. We thought it might collapse.

We stood almost the whole night because there was no space to sit. We were freezing and hungry. Later, we moved to another cellar where there was more room. I tried to ask the Russians for permission to go and get our belongings and food, but they didn't allow it.

The Anashchenko Family

We live in the village of Peremoha in Brovary district. The war started so abruptly that we could barely comprehend where to run and what to do. We had a large house and many animals. When the village began to be bombed, we hid in the cellar. But the bombings intensified, and it was announced that people would be evacuated. The Russians allowed us to come out of the cellar but didn't let us take our belongings.

Our family was taken away through a green corridor. We hoped dearly that our house would be preserved, and we worried about our animals. When we returned to our village after the occupation, our house was completely destroyed. The entire street was bombed.

The Babenko Family

The war began for Marina back in 2014. When the Russian invaders bombed the city of Donetsk, Marina Babenko was preparing lunch for her family. Rocket shrapnel hit their apartment directly, causing Marina to suffer shrapnel wounds in her arm and eye, which continue to have lasting effects to this day. This kind-hearted woman has endured tremendous suffering as a result of Russian aggression, and that was only the beginning of the hardships she has experienced and continues to face today. Her husband passed away, and her only daughter was diagnosed with brain cancer. Marina and her daughter have now moved to a small rented apartment in Kyiv for her daughter's treatment, and all their money goes towards her chemotherapy.

The Byshovets Family

Vitalii Ivanovych Bishovets, from the village of Pere-moha in Brovary district, Kyiv region. Vitalii Ivano-vych wept when we handed him the card, express-ing profound gratitude to the compassionate individuals and all those who sympathize with the victims of the war in Ukraine. A rocket hit his house, and he miraculously survived. His wife passed away, leaving him alone. He expressed his desire not to leave this place, where his life was, and where his wife is buried. He is immensely grateful to the people who helped him during such difficult times. He cannot speak about the supportive people without tears in his eyes.

Nataliia Kravchenko Family

Our family is from the Bachmut district. Brutal shell-ing forced us to flee to the Kyiv region. Our home has been destroyed. We are infinitely grateful to you for not leaving us alone in our hardship. Thanks to your financial support, we had food and all the necessities. We have shelter in this difficult period. The war continues, and we don't know what awaits us ahead, but today, thanks to you, we have everything we need. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

The Kardashova Family

The story of Lilia Kardashova is one of hardship and resilience. She grew up in difficult circumstances as an orphan in a children's home. From a young age, Lilia lived in inhumane conditions without electricity or running water. She rarely attended school and struggled with basic literacy skills. She was like a modern-day Mowgli, isolated from society. When her parents passed away, Lilia was sent to a children's home as her relatives refused to care for her due to her developmental challenges. At the age of 13, volunteers visited the children's home and noticed Lilia, expressing a desire to help her. Over the course of four years, they worked on her social integration, which was an incredibly challenging and arduous process. Lilia had to learn how to read and master basic skills.

Galina Kalinichenko Family

Hello, my dear ones. I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for your support during these difficult times. My pension is only $35 per month. I am old and have numerous health issues. I have to pay for my medical treatment. Winter has arrived, and without your help, I would simply freeze without heat. You rescue me from hunger and cold. When the bombings occur, it is very frightening. But every month, I receive your warmth and support. May God bless you abundantly.

The Pinak Family

Like all Ukrainians, my family was not prepared for war. It all happened unexpectedly. Our lives were completely shattered in an instant. Our only thoughts were on how to survive and protect our family. Our house was located near a military airfield, so the first bombings hit our neighborhoods. Left without shelter and work, we couldn't even imagine how we would live now. But God performed a miracle.

Thank you, Dell Loy and Julia, for your generous hearts. You are our saviors. May God bless you!

The Khytrykh Family

The story of Galina and Peter reflects the story of many Ukrainian families. They had a house, a farm, and a garden. They went to work and enjoyed their grandchildren. They helped their children build a house and planned for a peaceful retirement. But the war destroyed everything. Their house and the houses of their neighbors were demolished. How to start living again, what to do? ? Thank you very much!

Ruban Evgeniya

Good afternoon, we are the Ruban family, father Serhiy, mother Yevgenia, son Yevhen, daughter Olga. A year ago we left our native village in Zaporizya region because we could not live in the occupation. Our journey was very difficult, we drove for 11 hours under shelling in fear for our children, where and when we are safe. We were accepted by Kolo-myia, we live in a shelter. We were very lucky to meet in person Dell Loy Hansen, his wife Julie and David and Shel Levitt. They helped a lot in a difficult time and we were able to buy clothes, shoes, glasses, the children's eyesight has worsened. They helped my husband a lot to who went to serve in the Armed Forces and needed to buy a uniform and shoes and a backpack.

Olga Korol

Olga Korol from Shevchenkove village, Brovary district. It has been six months, but the wound of losing my husband doesn't heal. Olga and her child were put on a bus and sent away from the village as soon as the war started. Her husband stayed behind, saying he would watch over the house and parents. Over a thousand Russian tanks entered the village. Russians entered people's homes, confiscated phones and food, and drove people out.

My husband and his brother hid in the basement. But after a few days, when the food ran out, he decided to reach his mother. However, as he approached the house, he and his brother were captured and taken to the center.

Nila Vergeles

My name is Nila my husband Timur our son Mark is 3.5 years old. The life of our family changed beyond recognition on February 24 when the invasion of the Russian Federation began. We live in Bucha along Lesnaya 16 street, which is adjacent to Vokzalnaya street near the Gostomel airport from which Russia started bombing our houses. On March 1, we decided to somehow get out through the village of Buzovaya, we decided to go along but there were already tanks that blocked the highway. Our car in which I was driving, my husband and us son, he was only 3.5 years old, was shot from all sides. The husband was injured. But he was able to turn the car around. We hid in a dacha cooperative which was encircled.

Ludmila Yakovenko

My name is Lyudmila Yakovenko. Until 2014, I lived in Crimea with my husband and son. I taught the history of foreign literature at the institute. The husband was an entrepreneur, engaged in the production of outdoor advertising. After the occupation of Crimea, we were forced to leave everything and move to Ukraine. In 2019, they bought an apartment in Irpin, but did not live there for long. Active combat events in Irpin began from the first day of the war. On February 27, several shells hit the house where my family and I lived. The roof, windows, walls were damaged.

Oleksandr Oliynyk

Good day! My name is Oleksandr, and I have three children: a 19-year-old daughter, a 6-year-old daughter, and a 2-year-old son. My family and I were living peacefully in a small village in the Bucha district near Kyiv. Unfortunately, on February 24, 2022, at 4:00 in the morning, we heard explosions, and our family had to leave our home. We traveled amidst rocket explosions and traffic jams, and it was very frightening, especially with our young children.

The next day, on February 25, 2022, we discovered that Russian forces had occupied the Bucha district. People who were still trying to leave Kyiv were shot on the road not far from our town. Then, on March 12, 2022, we learned that our home had been destroyed by the Russian occupiers.

The Deryuga Family

We are the Deryuga family. With the onset of the full-scale war in Ukraine, a helping hand in the form of financial assistance reached us from Del Loi, along with his wife Yulia and David Levit. Over a year, your monetary support has been directed towards the education of my five children, including private English tutoring, music school, acting school, art school, and dance school. During this time, my children were well-clothed and received all the necessary vitamins for their proper development. And most importantly, we had electricity and managed to endure this harsh winter because we were able to provide ourselves with a generator.

The Bilonozko Family

We live in the city of Mykolaiv. Our city started getting bombed from the first days. I take care of three disabled individuals – my sister and son are disabled in the first group, and my elderly mother is very ill. We can't go anywhere. When the bombs fall, we don't even have the ability to run to shelter. We simply pray that God will protect us. When the sirens sound, my son screams as he suffers from a mental disorder.

Every day our city is being bombed. We have forgotten what a peaceful sleep feels like. The store where I worked was bombed. I lost my job, having to take care of three disabled individuals. Your financial support has literally saved our lives.

Yuri Khizhnyak Family

Before the war, my family lived in the city of Irpin. Since February 24, when the full-scale invasion of the Russian army into Ukraine began, we woke up in the morning to explosions. I will remember this terrible date for the rest of my life. It was impossible to believe what had happened. After the blowing up of the bridge over the Irpin River and the beginning of the fighting for Hostomel, the place where we lived was at the forefront of Kyiv's defense.

It was decided to leave. When the family was in a safe place I decided to return home. What I saw upon my return cannot be succinctly described. Burnt houses, dead people on the roadside. All this was etched in my memory for a lifetime.

The Lysenko Family

In 2017, Inna was diagnosed with breast carcinoma. During peacetime, we had enough funds for her treatment because both Inna and I were working. I had my own automobile maintenance station. Our son Ivan entered the National Aviation University (NAU), and Anton was studying in school. Later, Ivan made the decision to join the Armed Forces. And after 3 months, the war began...I stayed in Irpin because there were bedridden elderly neighbors nearby, and there was no one else to take care of them except us. Ivan experienced the war in his unit in Vasilkov, Inna started working at the Kiev branch of a military hospital, and Anton initially stayed in Vinnitsa and later moved to my father in Rivne region.

The Chornovil Family

Good day. I would like to express deep gratitude from the Chernovol family to the Lord God for keeping me and my entire family alive and healthy, and gratitude to the Levit family for their financial support during this difficult time that my homeland, Ukraine, is going through! On that dreadful morning of February 24, when it all started, I must admit, we were in a state of shock and had no idea what to do. We were especially concerned for for our children, aged 6 and 13. We decided to leave our city of Brovary on the second day, the 25th, because our city was located near Kyiv, which was the main target for the invaders. We realized that we all needed to survive!

The Sklyarevskiy Family

My family is from Mariupol. Words cannot express the horror that our family went through. The photos of our homes will tell a more vivid story. We are immensely grateful for your tremendous support during this time. We were able to find accommodation and purchase necessary items. We have been under your protection all this time. Our family is praying for you.

Sklyarevskiy Valery

The war took everything from me. From the beginning of the war and the shelling of Mariupol, I was in my private house, not far from the Drama Theater, which was destroyed by the Russian military, I was with a friend. They bombed so that for two weeks we did not climb out of the basement at all, and it was impossible to fall asleep at night due to the continuity of air bombs, artillery and mortars. Once the Russian military came, there were Chechens and Russians. They shot my dogs. They got me and a friend out of the filing, checked the documents, asked for the safe, apparently thought that I had money. After interrogation and inspection, we were sent to the lodge.

The Kovalev Family

On February 24, the war found me at work. I work in a kindergarten. The shelling of the outskirts of the city began. I ran home because I had to take my things and go to the children, they lived in the city center, at that moment it seemed that it would be safer there. When I ran to the house, the house had already suffered from hail strikes. With tears we went to the children. Chaos began, screams, corpses, burning, houses collapsed.

Light, gas, water disappeared. Under these conditions, they lived in an apartment with children on the 3rd floor, and they were in the same house, but on the 1st floor in the apartment of the parents of the son-in-law, since it was not safe to live with a small child on the 3rd floor.

The Lupeyko Family

We first heard the explosions, and later witnessed them from the window of our apartment. We decided to travel to western Ukraine until the situation stabilized. That's how the war began for us. We all expected that this senseless war would end in 2-3 weeks, but it has been going on for almost a year and four months now. The terror inflicted by the aggressors on Ukrainian soil knows no bounds, and the crimes against civilians are becoming increasingly horrific. Familiar acquaintances invited us to temporarily stay in Lviv, with whom we had only communicated online before. We spent the first three months of the war in western Ukraine, relatively peaceful, and also found our best friends there.

The Chychykalov Family

Hello Dell Loy, Julia and David!

Although we have known each other for a year, I will start from the beginning. We are the Chichikalov family from the city of Dnipro. My name is Anna, I am 39 years old, my son Dmytro (who has bronchial asthma) and my grandparents. Unfortunately, my grandfather also underwent surgery for prostate adenoma (and now he will always have a catheter for urine).

I work as a cold water controller, my salary is 6700 UAH (less than the minimum subsistence level) and I do not live with my husband. Thanks to your financial support, we were not hungry, and every month we bought medicines without which Dmytro, his grandparents (blood pressure) cannot live, and I have repeatedly suffered from bronchitis (as we stayed in the bomb shelter for a long time).

The Vysogorets Family

My name is Tatyana, I am a mother of three children. When the war started, they were forced to leave the city of Pokrovsk and rent housing. They arrived in Petropavlivka, life became more difficult - financial difficulties, it is difficult to find a job. There is no support, what one manages to earn is not enough even for basic needs. Now I work in a store, the salary is minimal, I cannot find another job, because there is no one to leave the children with. I learned about your organization and am receiving help. Thanks, now my children have food and clothes. This is a huge help for us.

Yurchuk Kateryna

I am Yurchuk Kateryna from Zhytomyr region
On the 17th day of the war, March 12, 2022, volunteers took me and my sister, who was staying with me at the time, 600 kilometers from home to Prykarpattia. We were warmly welcomed here in Kosiv. They settled us in a school classroom. They fed us three times, then twice a day. 15 people lived in our class, then we were moved to other classes , because they were preparing the school for children's education. My sister and I worked on creating a camouflage robe called "Kikimora", which was ordered by volunteers. Then we were all transferred to another school, 6 people lived in my room (former school classroom).

The Paleev Family

My name is Albina, I am a mother of three children. In connection with the war, there are no robots, there is not enough money to provide, the old grandfather and grandmother still live with us, we take care of them. I am always looking for a way to provide for my children and as soon as there is a part-time job, I go without hesitation. It is not easy for us; ; children go to school, sometimes there is not even enough for simple notebooks. The only thing that saves us is that we live in a private house, we have our own garden and a small farm.

The Gerasimenko Family

Good afternoon. We are a large family from the Dnipropetrovsk region, we lived in Bakhmut, Donetsk region, when the war began, rockets began to fly in to us from time to time. Not wanting to risk our lives and the lives of our children (we have three of them), we decided to run away from the war somewhere! Because some of our documents were lost when they were gathering in puffs. We lived wherever we could (schools, dormitories, gyms).

Since my parents and my husband's parents are with us, they are elderly people, it is very difficult for us to find normal housing, there are no finances, some documents were lost, it is impossible to get full assistance from the state. Now we live in the village of Maryanovka, Ternopil region.

The Ageev Family

Good afternoon, my name is Lily. We are from the frontline village of Slobozhanskoye. There were enemy rockets arriving in our village and our house was partially destroyed. Miraculously, we weren't hurt. My parents and my two children were forced to leave because there is no way to restore housing, and the threat to life is very high.

My parents are disabled of the second group! And I'm in position. My husband left us and does not give any help. At the moment we live in a cold hostel where there are absolutely no conditions for a future newborn.

The Ponomaryov Family

Good afternoon, dear project organizers Dell Loya and team. Our Ponomaryov family is very grateful to you for your help in this difficult situation. Thank you for not remaining indifferent and helping us. In fact, this time is not easy and the money you give makes our unstable life easier. We ask you to continue this program to support Ukrainian families. We thank God for your sensitive, caring hearts towards the Ukrainian people and the problems we faced. We wish that no one had to go through this horror. Our Ponomaryov family is very grateful to you for your help in this difficult time for us and our country. We live in Lviv because there are no active hostilities here. Thanks to your financial support!

The Mitrakov Family

A full-scale war caught my family, like thousands of Ukrainians, by surprise. We are a large family from Kharkiv.

I am Halyna, I am 41 years old, my daughters are 21 and 19 years old, and my three sons are 14; 5 and 1.5 years. Decisions about where to go were approved on the way. In the end, they got to Lviv. They didn't leave right away, because they believed that everything would end now, but when the month of March passed and everything only got worse, a month of basements, or in the corridor on the floor, children are constantly sick, from the cold and dampness, you can't get medicine, there is nothing to feed the children, my heart was torn to shreds with helplessness.

The Makarshyn Family

We are a family of immigrants from the Luhansk region. Makarshina Darya and Makarshin Dmytro and our daughter. I am the mother of a little girl, she is one year and 2 months old. My husband and the whole family are from the Luhansk region. For the second time since 2014, we were forced to flee our city, left everything there and left for Western Ukraine. Our city is now under occupation. The house where my husband, his mother, and her brothers grew up was destroyed by enemy bombs. There are ruins left on the site of the house. Together with the house, our lives have been destroyed, because all the memories, photographs, things from my grandmother and my husband's grandfather, the trees and the garden were planted by my mother and her brothers when they were small.

The Kovalchuk Family

We are a family from Kyiv. From the very beginning of the war, they fled from constant shelling. They left all their property, work and left for a safe territory in the West of Ukraine. We rent housing, there is no stable work. Thank you for helping the families of Ukraine.

We are an ordinary family that lived a normal life near the city of Kyiv until this war began. We immediately ran west to our relatives, my husband sent us to friends in Barcelona, but we could not stay there for a long time, especially since the Military Commissariat obliged my husband to appear every week and he had to return closer to home, my daughters and I also returned from abroad Now we rent housing in the city of Kyiv itself.

The Kolisnyk Family

Good health. My children and I thank you very much for the help we receive from you. And this thanks will not cease even when this term of assistance ends. With your help, I am able to buy the children food, medicine, everything they need. Sometimes you even manage to help your mother and sisters a little, who also need help. So your charity is a very big deal for us. Thank you again for all you do for all people. May the Lord bless you!

The Stolba Family

Good afternoon . The Stolba family thanks you for your help. We left our home seven months ago and arrived in Transcarpathia. All this time we lived in one room with five in the house where 3 more families lived. Thanks to your help, we have the opportunity to rent a separate apartment. Our city of Izyum was liberated in September, but we cannot return there.

The city is 80% destroyed. Almost the entire infrastructure has been destroyed. Our house was also damaged and needs repair. Thank you very much for your indifference of heart and help in difficult times. Thank you and praying for you!

The Suysit Family

Our family is grateful for your help. We are pensioners from Mariupol, now we are in Western Ukraine. It would be very difficult without your help. From the pension, we pay the rent and utilities, and from your money we eat and receive medical treatment, our grandfather, who is 90 years old, is with us. Thank you again. May the Lord be with you always.

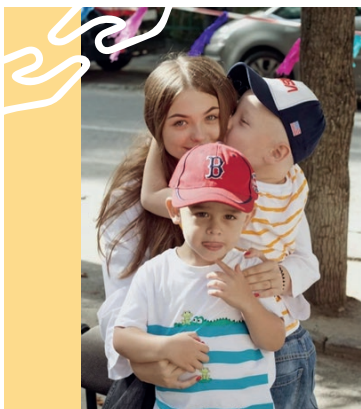

The Karpovy Family

Greetings from the Karpovy family. You can't get used to war, to constant worries, explosions and terrible news about the injuries and deaths of your friends from enemy bullets... Thank God life goes on and we secretly have the right to sit and be afraid and whine...

My family returned from Transcarpathia to our hometown Pavlograd, Dnipropetrovsk region. We continue to serve people and children. Most recently, they were in the city of Pokrovsk in the Donetsk region, brought aid and held a holiday for children with disabilities. Despite the constant loud sounds of heavy weapons in the city, there are many civilian families in need of help.

The Suysit (Olena) Family

Good day. Before the war, we lived in Melitopol, unfortunately, because of the war, we were forced to leave our home. We are a large family, my husband and I have three sons. We live in the suburbs of Lviv in rented accommodation. We are very grateful to the organizers and sponsors of this project for such help. Thanks to you, we gathered our boys to school, bought warm clothes, buy food and medicine.

During a power outage, we bought a generator with these funds. This is really a very enhanced help. We pray for each of you. May God bless your families.

Maryna Kravchenko

Hello our dear!

Dell Loy, Yulia, Devid Leavit. The Kravchenko family would like to you with a great request for an extension of the project for at least a year. We certainly believe that the victory will soon be ours. Our husbands are at the front. The economy has gone up. Food prices have gone up, and I don't have a job at the moment. I have an elderly mother and two children, one of whom has a disability.

I need to regularly buy her medicine, which cost a lot of money, to be examined and so e.Utilities services we also do not cancel, and children and the elderly, we can not leave without heat. Thanks to your card!

Shatrovska and Zavgur Families

The Shatrovsky and Zavgur families sincerely thank you from the bottom of our hearts for the assistance provided in such a difficult situation that we find ourselves in. I am unemployed, and my mother has a small pension. My mother is at an age where she constantly needs medication, and the prices are very high. Additionally, the cold weather is approaching, and we need warm clothing and shoes. Your help allows us to purchase these necessities.

For the winter, we need to buy potatoes and onions. We are extremely grateful to you.

The Bazarov Family

My name is Svitlana Bazarova. I have a husband and three children. We live in the city of Pavlohrad, between the front lines where heavy fighting is taking place. When the war started, it was a strong stress for all of us. My husband sent me and the children to Zakarpattia for two months. It helped the children recover mentally after a rocket landed near our house.

War is just horrifying... Our relatives and many friends are fighting. My brother, nephew, and son-in-law have returned with severe injuries. Your help is invaluable to us. We are grateful to you and will never forget your assistance.
